

General Terms and Conditions for the Purchase of Services - Flytoget AS

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 These general terms and conditions apply for Flytoget's purchase of services unless otherwise agreed.
- 1.2 The party who has contracted to provide services to Flytoget will be referred to as "Supplier".

2 SUPPLIER'S OBLIGATIONS

- 2.1 Supplier shall provide the services specified in the contract according to the progress schedule agreed in the contract or as agreed between the parties in writing. Supplier shall fulfil their contractual obligations to deliver the services regardless of any contractual disputes between the parties and under no circumstance has Supplier any right to cancel incomplete works due to any dispute between the parties.
- 2.2 The services must be provided to a high standard of workmanship, in accordance with the contractual requirements and always in compliance with current laws, regulations and government directions as well as the relevant trade standards. Supplier shall also ensure that the work is conducted at a pace which Flytoget may reasonably expect.
- 2.3 Supplier is obliged to ensure that all personnel employed to fulfil this contract have relevant and sufficient skills for their tasks at all times.
- 2.4 When undertaking work at Flytoget's premises, Supplier shall comply with Flytoget's instructions with regard to health, environment and safety. This applies similarly for work undertaken at other premises on Flytoget's instruction.
- 2.5 Supplier shall never employ sub-suppliers to provide significant parts of the service without Flytoget's written consent. Such consent does not relieve Supplier of his duties under the contract. Supplier is fully responsible to Flytoget for the work and conduct of his sub-suppliers.
- 2.6 Flytoget will not be considered the employer of Supplier's personnel in law or in fact, even when such personnel provide the service, or parts thereof, by working jointly with Flytoget, at Flytoget's premises or on Flytoget's instructions.
- 2.7 Supplier shall provide reports regarding work undertaken and any other matter of importance to Flytoget. Such reports must be submitted at the frequency and level of detail described in the contract, or as otherwise requested by Flytoget. On completion of the work, Supplier shall submit a completion report. Unless otherwise agreed, all reports shall be submitted electronically.

3 FLYTOGET'S ASSISTANCE

- 3.1 Flytoget shall fulfil their obligations under the contract and otherwise reasonably accommodate Supplier's efforts to fulfil their contractual obligations. To this end, Flytoget shall provide the necessary office space for work which shall be performed at Flytoget's premises, and ensure access and reasonable accommodation for work to be carried out at other premises, on Flytoget's instructions.

4 COMMUNICATION AND MEETINGS

- 4.1 Any and all communication between parties shall take place between the contact persons defined in the contract.
- 4.2 The parties shall meet regularly to assess the work under the contract. The frequency of meetings is subject to further agreement. Both parties are entitled to demand a meeting with the opposite party by giving 14 days' notice in writing.

5 VARIATIONS

- 5.1 Flytoget may, to a reasonable extent, demand qualitative and/or quantitative variations to the service, as well as changes to the progress schedules.
- 5.2 Should Supplier wish to claim an adjustment to the agreed price or progress schedule as a consequence of any variation defined under Clause 5.1, Supplier must notify Flytoget without undue delay. Unless such notification is submitted in time, the service must be provided within the time and price agreed.
- 5.3 Supplier shall keep a record of all variations under clauses 5.1 and 5.2. These records must be kept updated at all times.

6 REPLACING KEY PERSONNEL

- 6.1 Supplier's key personnel cannot be replaced without Flytoget's consent. Such consent cannot be unreasonably withheld.
- 6.2 Flytoget may demand that Supplier replace any personnel performing work under the contract without undue delay, if there are reasonable grounds for doing so.

7 SUSPENSION OF SERVICES

- 7.1 Flytoget may suspend the delivery of all or some of the services agreed under the contract, by written notice. On receipt of such notice, Supplier shall, without undue delay, notify Flytoget of the effects that this suspension may have on the overall performance of Supplier's obligations under the contract, if any.
- 7.2 Throughout the period during which the provision of services is suspended, Supplier is entitled to compensation only for documented and necessary expenses incurred in connection with demobilising and mobilising personnel.

8 TERMINATION

- 8.1 Unless otherwise agreed, Flytoget is entitled to terminate the contract and/or the work undertaken in fulfilment of Supplier's obligations under the contract in whole or in part by giving one month's notice in writing.
- 8.2 Supplier has no right to terminate the agreement unless otherwise agreed.

9 PAYMENT

- 9.1 The prices payable for Supplier's services must be specified in the form of contract or in Flytoget's purchase order. All prices must be given in NOK exclusive of VAT.
- 9.2 Unless the parties agree otherwise, the payment shall be calculated on the basis of hours worked at the hourly rates listed in the form of contract or in Flytoget's purchase order. Flytoget may demand that Supplier delivers a budget or provides an estimate for the expected time and cost involved with providing all or some of the services. This budget shall be communicated to Flytoget in advance and include any and all potential risks of further works/excess time required for completion of the contractual services. If there is reason to believe that the budget or estimate will be exceeded by more than 15 per cent, Supplier shall immediately notify Flytoget. The notification will in no event be accepted after the budget has been exceeded. Supplier is only entitled to payment in excess of the original budget if the revised budget is due to circumstances where Flytoget would have had to understand that such costs would accrue

General Terms and Conditions for the Purchase of Services - Flytoget AS

- 9.3 All unit prices shall be fixed throughout the contract period unless otherwise agreed.
- 9.4 Invoices shall be submitted monthly in arrears and must provide a detailed breakdown of working hours, with payment due within 30 days of the invoice date. If a fixed price has been agreed, the invoice shall be submitted only after full delivery has been made and approved, unless a particular payment schedule has been agreed.
- 9.5 If Flytoget has agreed to cover travel and subsistence, such costs may be invoiced in accordance with the Norwegian Government's travel allowance scale. Flytoget shall always approve such costs in advance and in writing.
- 9.6 All invoices must provide a reference number and the name of a reference person, and must be addressed to:

Flytoget AS
c/o Fakturamottak
At Work Systems AS
Neptunveien 6, 7652 Verdal
Norway

All invoices must be itemised and accompanied by time sheets etc. to enable checking by Flytoget.

Invoices that are incorrectly completed or referenced may be rejected by Flytoget. In that case, Supplier shall credit the amount to Flytoget's account and issue a new, correct, invoice. The payment is due from the date of the correct invoice.

- 9.7 If it has been agreed that Supplier will provide a bank guarantee, Flytoget will not be obliged to make any payment until such guarantee has been submitted.
- 9.8 Supplier shall submit his final invoice within 60 days of fulfilment or termination of the contract. The final invoice shall cover all Supplier's claims under the contract. Any and all claims not included in the final invoice cannot be presented later.
- 9.9 Payment of an invoice implies no approval of the service provided, the invoice documents or the specification.
- 9.10 In case of late payment, Supplier is entitled to claim interest under the Norwegian Act of 17 December 1976 no. 100 relating to Interest on Overdue Payments.

10 SUPPLIER'S BREACH OF CONTRACT

10.1 Defects

- 10.1.1 The goods will be defective if they fail to meet the requirements set out in clause 2 above.

10.2 The implications of defective service

- 10.2.1 If Flytoget considers the service provided to be defective, Flytoget is entitled to a discount proportionate with the defect, or to cancel the service, entirely or in parts
- 10.2.2 Regardless of Clause 10.2.1 above, Flytoget is also entitled to claim damages for any loss reasonably considered to be incurred by defective goods, unless Supplier can prove that the loss was not caused by the defect in question. . Supplier's liability for damages does not cover Flytoget's indirect losses unless Supplier is guilty of gross negligence or intent.

10.3 Infringement of intellectual property rights

- 10.3.1 Supplier shall indemnify and hold Flytoget harmless against all claims if the provision or outcome of the service should cause, or be alleged to cause, any infringement of a third party's patent right or other intellectual property rights.

11 INSURANCE

- 11.1 Supplier shall at his own cost take out and maintain such insurances which are appropriate for Supplier's activities and the nature of the service provided, including liability insurance.
- 11.2 Supplier shall submit the certificate of insurance to Flytoget no later than at the time of entering into the contract.

12 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 12.1 The parties are obliged to keep confidential any personal matters, operational issues and business secrets to which they may gain access in connection with their work under the contract. This non-disclosure obligation extends beyond the contract period and for as long as the relevant information remains confidential. Flytoget may demand that Supplier's personnel sign a special confidentiality declaration.
- 12.2 Supplier is not at liberty to quote Flytoget or the contract as reference to a third party without Flytoget's consent.

Should Flytoget provide such consent, this will not revoke the non-disclosure obligation under clause 12.1.

13 LEGAL TITLE TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 13.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, legal title to the intellectual property rights created by or resulting from the service provided will be transferred to Flytoget at the time of their making. Such legal title also includes the right to alter and assign these results, cf. s. 39(b) of the Norwegian Copyright Act of 12 May 1961 no. 2.
- 13.2 All reports, drawings, specifications and similar documents, as well as computer applications and software, which have been created in connection with the service, are considered intellectual property created by the service provided.
- 13.3 Supplier retains legal title to his own tools and methods. Unless otherwise follows from statutory or contractual non-disclosure obligations, both parties are at liberty to make use of any general know-how they may have acquired in connection with their work under the contract.

14 ASSIGNMENT

- 14.1 Flytoget is free to assign their rights and obligations under the contract.
- 14.2 Supplier is not entitled to assign his rights and obligations under the contract without Flytoget's written consent. Supplier may nevertheless freely transfer the right to the compensation payable under the contract (factoring). However, any such transfer will not exempt Supplier of his obligations under the contract.

15 CHOICE OF LAW AND DISPUTES

- 15.1 The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with Norwegian law.
- 15.2 Efforts must be made to reach a negotiated resolution to any dispute arising from the interpretation or implementation of the contract. Should such negotiations fail to settle the matter, the case will be brought before the ordinary courts of law.
- 15.3 In the event of litigation, Flytoget's court of domicile will constitute the appropriate place of jurisdiction.
